A. J.

Dear Madam,

Called at Your Residence
One day last winter, but you were out. I was looking for work as usual, and while strolling about the street I met Jan. Gibson and talked with her. She remembered back, in 1923, Sept, when she fed me for two days. She told me she would find me work.
She had our good friend In prison that would be more than anxious to find work for she would not tell who the friend was. I told her. I would be back, In New Brunswick Jan, 1928 strongly hoped. Mrs Hall.) X
